Q.3 Why is the external environment of an enterprise important to all managers? Can any manager avoid being influenced by the external environment? [5] [CO2]

Q.4 "Management is concerned with ideas, things and people." Comment. [5] [CO1]

Q.5 ABC Limited is facing huge losses. First of all, there is no specific sharing of work and any time any employee is asked to do anything. This has led to wastage of efforts. Further due to negligence in proper work sharing there has been no specialization, development in the nature of the jobs done by the employees. There are no clear and fair agreements between the workers and the management. This has led to a lot of frustration in the workers. Management has quite often been found to be ignorant of not fulfilling promises done by it. There are also no strict rules and regulations binding on the conduct of the workers. The departmental heads who are the middle level managers in the company and hold key positions always favour their relatives. They quite often don't turn up for job on time. They are always looking for special relaxations from the top management. This has led to feeling of resentment among the employees who are also demanding special favours and threatening strike in the coming days.

Identify the three principles of Fayol violated in the above case and state reasons for the same. [5] [CO1]
